Important notice please read

- 1 If the hotels above are not available on your dates, they will be replaced by similar ones.
- 2 All services are on a private basis. In case of crowded groups or special circumstances, the order of sights may be adjusted.
- 3 Travellers booked alone (including children with a bed) will be paired to share a room; if they decline, the single supplement applies.
- 4 This rate includes shop visits: a pearl farm, jade shop, latex store and Chinese medicine shop. A fine applies if travellers do not visit the shops.
- 5 Day 4 is a free day with no service. Optional: Shanghai Disneyland day pass with transfers, USD 130 per person; or Shanghai city tour (Jinmao Tower, Xintiandi, Qipu Road Market), USD 60 per person. Both need at least 10 travellers.
- 6 Philippine passport holders need a China visa; the China group visa is USD 40 per person.
- 7 Child rates: under 18 years is considered a child; child with bed and child without bed rates apply.
- 8 Hotels may be replaced by similar ones; the order of attractions may change in crowded periods or special circumstances.
- 9 Late-night flights: arrival in Shanghai is after midnight on the morning of Day 2's calendar date, and the return flight leaves in the early hours after the last day, so the trip counts as 6 days.

Know before you go China tips

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Tourist visa required

Philippine passport holders need a Chinese tourist (L) visa arranged before travel — our ticketing desk can walk you through the requirements. Passport valid 6+ months with blank pages. No vaccinations are required.

GETTING AROUND

Metro plus Didi

City metros are fast, cheap and signed in English; use the Didi app (with in-app English) for taxis. Your package covers airport transfers and a private coach on tour days, and high-speed trains link the cities.

MONEY

Renminbi (¥); go cashless

China runs on mobile pay — set up Alipay or WeChat Pay and link a Visa/Mastercard before you fly; they now work for tourists almost everywhere. Carry some cash as backup. Tipping is not customary. Budget roughly ₱2,000–3,500 a day for meals and extras.

LANGUAGE

Mandarin; little English

English is limited outside hotels, so keep translations handy. Useful words: Nǐ hǎo (hello), Xièxie (thank you), Duōshǎo qián? (how much?). Your guide translates throughout the tour.

WEATHER & WHAT TO PACK

Four seasons; check your month

Shanghai has hot, humid summers and cold winters; Yunnan (Kunming, Lijiang) is mild by day but cool at night and sits at altitude. Layers, a warm jacket, comfortable shoes, sunblock and a rain layer cover most dates.

CULTURE & ETIQUETTE

Mind the customs

Give and receive items with both hands, never stand chopsticks upright in rice, and queue patiently. Photography can be restricted at temples and official sites — follow the signs and your guide.
